

For discussion:

Agenda Item: 4

Doubly labeled water dataset

- I. Infants
- II. Pregnant and lactating women

Further guidance is required on the use of the DLW data for infants and pregnant and lactating women, as a majority of the studies are longitudinal studies, with total energy expenditure being measured at different time points on the same subject.